CHOCOLATE - CONCERTS AN EVENT FOR EARS, MOUTH, NOSE, EYES AND SOUL

Savouring and seeing the chocolate

A real chocolate kitchen is set up at the concerts right next to the musicians onstage. Here the chocolate girls prepare the tasty creations and the chocolatier celebrates his handiwork. Seductive smells waft gently through the air. The colour of the location is in tune with this tasty food for the soul.

Hearing the chocolate

Many of Rommel's well-known songs, from Bossa to Jazz to Swing and Rock, are being repacked in a coating of chocolate. A delicious "chocolate thread" running through a musical world tour along with brief stories about chocolate. Wonderful songs are garnished with delightful dialogues between the chocolatier and Christina.

Feeling and tasting the chocolate

Soon after the first notes are played, our chocolate expert talks of his passion and hands the audience the first samples of his skills – fresh chocolates with a special "crunch", irresistible culinary delights of the most unusual varieties combined with Rommel's songs and humorous stories – the audience is held captive in a chocolate world of sensuous pleasure. Learn about the craft of the chocolatier and the origin of chocolate, watch your favourite chocolate being created throughout the entire evening, indulge yourself in music and continue to receive tasty samples of the finest, sweetest minor matter in the world.
